Press Release

John Foord focuses on European growth and announces new EMEA hire

03/Oct/2022 – John Foord, the international asset valuation specialist, has announced that Richard Shreeve will be joining the company as Executive Director – Valuations & Analytics EMEA. His role, based in London, will focus on developing John Foord’s business in the European and London markets, and driving analytics and valuation solutions for existing and new clients.

Richard brings in-depth knowledge of the insurance market to John Foord, having experience in the London, European and Asian insurance markets. As a broker, Richard has extensive experience of providing bespoke solutions to clients across the Energy spectrum, as well as a number of other industry sectors including petrochemical, manufacturing, leisure and real estate.

“We are pleased to welcome Richard to John Foord, his international experience across the insurance markets and his knowledge in implementing complex insurance programs will not only enhance John Foord’s capability in delivering specialist valuation advice to our clients but also broaden our credibility within the insurance markets that we serve. We also have the bonus of bringing on a well-respected professional individual in the industry.”, commented Graham Copland, Executive Director at John Foord.

Richard will be based in John Foord’s London office and will lead the development of valuation solutions across a range of industries and markets for insurance, accounting, financing, and transaction purposes for clients in EMEA. He will work in collaboration with the Analytics team to execute new developments.

Richard Shreeve commented: “I’m excited to be joining John Foord, a company that has incredibly strong foundations in Asia, throughout Europe and the London market. The opportunity for growth in the current market is undeniable, and I look forward to working with the team to support our clients and develop the analytical solutions business.”
