Press Release

Graham Copland to speak at the Malaysian Association of Risk and Insurance Management (MARIM) International Conference

15/07/2019 – Graham Copland, Executive Director at John Foord, has been invited to present at the Malaysian Association of Risk and Insurance Management (MARIM) International Conference 2019, a leading risk management and insurance conference that is expected to bring together hundreds of risk professionals, researchers and academics from the Asia-Pacific region.

Graham has been invited to present on “Sustainable Property Risks – Using Valuation and Analytics Techniques to Determine Sums Insured”. The session will highlight the rising pressure faced by risk managers and insurers to get sums insured correct, in a sustainable way, that minimises disruption to operations. Graham will explain how valuation and analytics techniques are allowing the valuation profession to assess costs quicker and more accurately with less requirements for site inspections and detailed assets information. The session is scheduled for Tuesday, 20 August 2019 at Le Meridien Putrajaya between 2:30PM – 3:00PM.

Graham is a qualified Chartered Mechanical Engineer with over 20 years' experience in engineering and asset valuations. He has worked on projects across Europe, United States, Middle East and Asia, providing clients accurate information to negotiate terms, reduce losses, mitigate risks, manage taxation and navigate changing regulations. Graham is a member of the board at John Foord with a primary focus on global key client development.

MARIM International Conference 2019 is a two-day conference scheduled for August 20th – 21st at Le Meridien Putrajaya. The event is conducted annually for risk and insurance practitioners to meet, learn and exchange views on risk and insurance management practices. The theme for this year's conference is “Leveraging Risk Management for Sustainable Future”.
